A Patchwork

atchwork of people places and faces
With the fears of a failure,
And the joys of a triumph.
A grandmother's heirloom of pieces of time
That are gone now, but will be remembered for always.
A quilt that is warm with the memories it holds.
Some sweet, some not quite so,....
But all worth remembering
Because their sum total
Is the Fabric of Life.

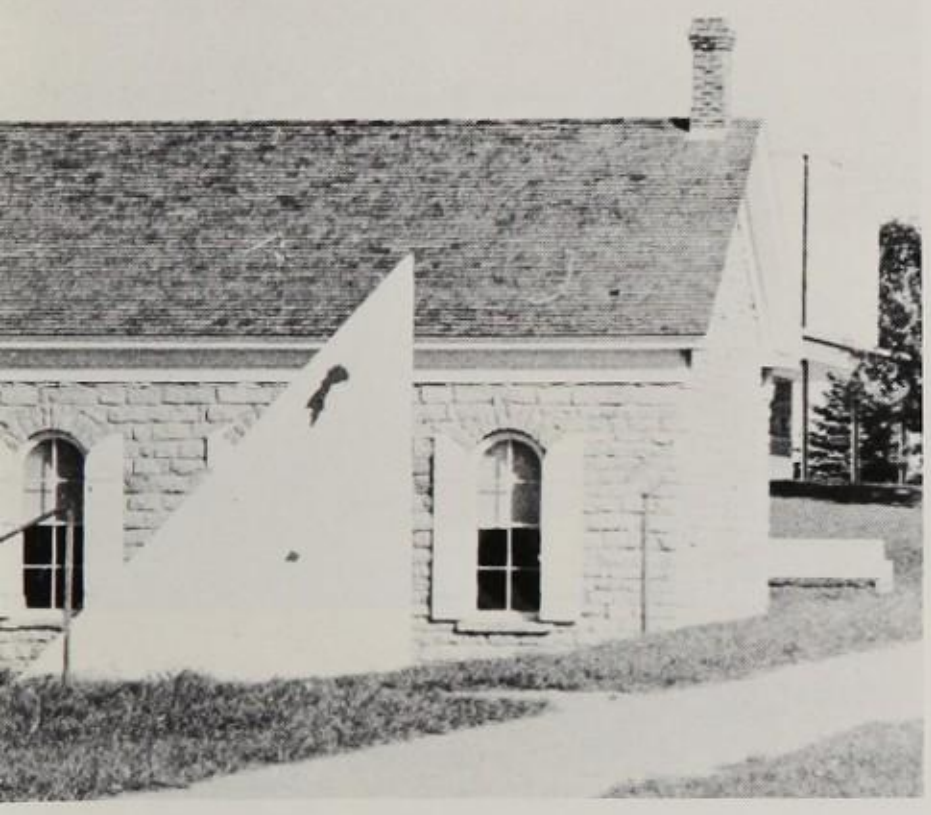
S. H.

pucker-up

(sardines)



I have a question. I think

Think of me

The future administration

Our group had 20% fewer cavities.

When I count to three and snap my fingers . . .

Isn't he cute

Heil, Bulka!

Will you look at that!

Those caferia pickles

A SENIOR IS . . .

who the devil cares?

I care

'cause I'm a senior

I'm the one with a lifetime of living ahead of me, a lifetime of learning
all I can, squish into a mass, that's my life, the ups and downs & inside outs.
I must experience
Me,
the one & only original here and then gone. So I must make it count, every valuable moment I can call mine, all the happiness, all the joy, all the hardships of life that give it full meaning.
I must grasp 'cause now I'm a senior.

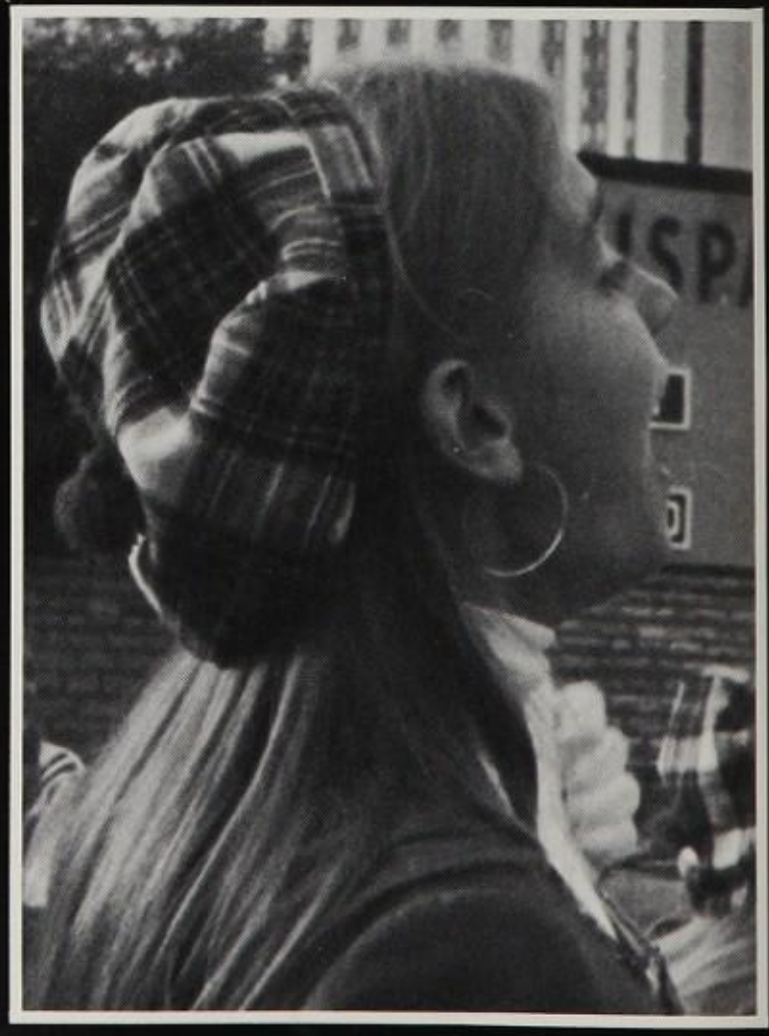
What Is a Senior? Really?

"Was that an A or an E?"

"That was my personal prejudice"

"You seem to be tardy . . . I just thought I'd mention it"

"What's the big deal?"



Friendship.

"Did you ever get the feeling that the teachers planned their tests on the same day?"

"Help!!"

It's hard to say
'cause I'm just beginning to formulate my own ideas,
to realize responsibility,
take on maturity,
it's me, the senior,
who, after twelve years of learning is just starting to really learn what learning is.
A senior is the person
carrying physic books, running down corridors
without hall passes, talking to teachers and the administration
as if they were old buddies.
We're the ones who can look back and see how we've progressed since our eyes first met up with HPSH.
Yes, it's hard to say what a Senior is,
because it's me.

All are architects of Fate,
Working in these walls of Time;
Some with massive deeds and great,
Some with ornaments of rhyme.

For the structure that we raise,
Time is with materials filled;
Our todays and yesterdays
Are the blocks with which we build.

Build today, then, strong and sure,
With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure
Shall tomorrow find its place.

Look to this day!
For it is life,
the very life of life.
In its brief course lie all the varieties and realities of your existence:
The bliss of growth;
The glory of action;
The splendor of beauty;
For yesterday
is already a dream,
and tomorrow
is only a vision;
But today, well lived,
makes every yesterday
a dream of happiness, and every tomorrow
a vision of hope.

The most beautiful thing
we can experience is the mysterious.
It is the source of all true art and science
He to whom this emotion is a stranger, who can no longer pause to wonder and stand rapt in awe is as good as dead. His eyes are closed.

I do not know what I may appear to the world;
but to myself I seem to have been only like a boy playing on the seashore, and diverting myself in now and then finding a smoother pebble or a prettier shell truth lay all undiscovered before me.

It's
a place, wrapped up in a big concrete building with a colorful flag,
a picture, made up of different colors, lines, and shapes, a song, composed of different ideas and feeling,
a play, written for both comedy
and tragedy,
a book, full of words and numbers,
a box, full of squares and circles,
a puzzle, with the last missing piece being yourself.

Crowds closely congregate,
fitting together like pieces of a puzzle,
only to be strewn and scattered about again,
we are no one,
but a mass that has no feelings, manipulated by the peoples who have made us machines within ourselves.
who have styled us into our molds of sameness into which we will remain until we realize That we are human flesh, blood,
and most of all,
capable of loving those who don't hate helping those who don't care and being our own person.

We fly endless years of time, growing old decrepid.
Young minds ticking.
Beating to a song.
Striking notes carefully.
Loafing by a lazy stream.
Leaping puppy dogs,
wagging tails,
Gulping the water pure
and clear.
Rocks of gold,
seen under and over.
Smiles of sunshine,
Unity of arms.
We love,
To live.

A senior is an actor on the high school stage
who's been an understudy for two long years, and now that he's finally got the lead
-he's at center stage the curtain goes up, the lights are glaring at him mercilessly-he's not so sure if he really wants the part.

Most Likely To Succeed
Becky Burchell and Al Sadowsky
Becky and Al are the two,
Most likely to succeed.
Since they are, they probably will Live up to this decree.

Friendliest
Barb Abrahamson and Scott Bumin
A "hi" over here,
A rendly word there.
Elka and Scott,
A nice friendly pair.

Best All Around
Jayne Hennes and Doug Wrede
Jayne and Doug
Are the ones we found,
To fit the category
Best all around.

Senior

Done Most For Highland
Mary Pat Pfundstein and Mark Spector
Mary Pat and Mark,
They lend a helping hand.
In helping out at school,
They've done most for Highland.

Most Talented
Betsy Sansby and Norman Bolter
If ever there's a song to be played
Or a terribly dramatic line to be read.
We know who to call on—
Betsy and Norm-most talented.

Most Athletic
Deann Derby and Tom Schway
Deann and Tom
As you will see,
Are most athletic
As can be.

Hall of

Biggest Eaters
Kris Gustafson and Jim Miller
Kris and Jim
They're two of a kind.
Eat, eat, eat,
For meals any time.

Biggest Rowdy
Colleen McManus and Tom Weeks
Give Colleen plenty of room
When she starts to cheer.
Tom is also, considered another Big rowdy of the year.

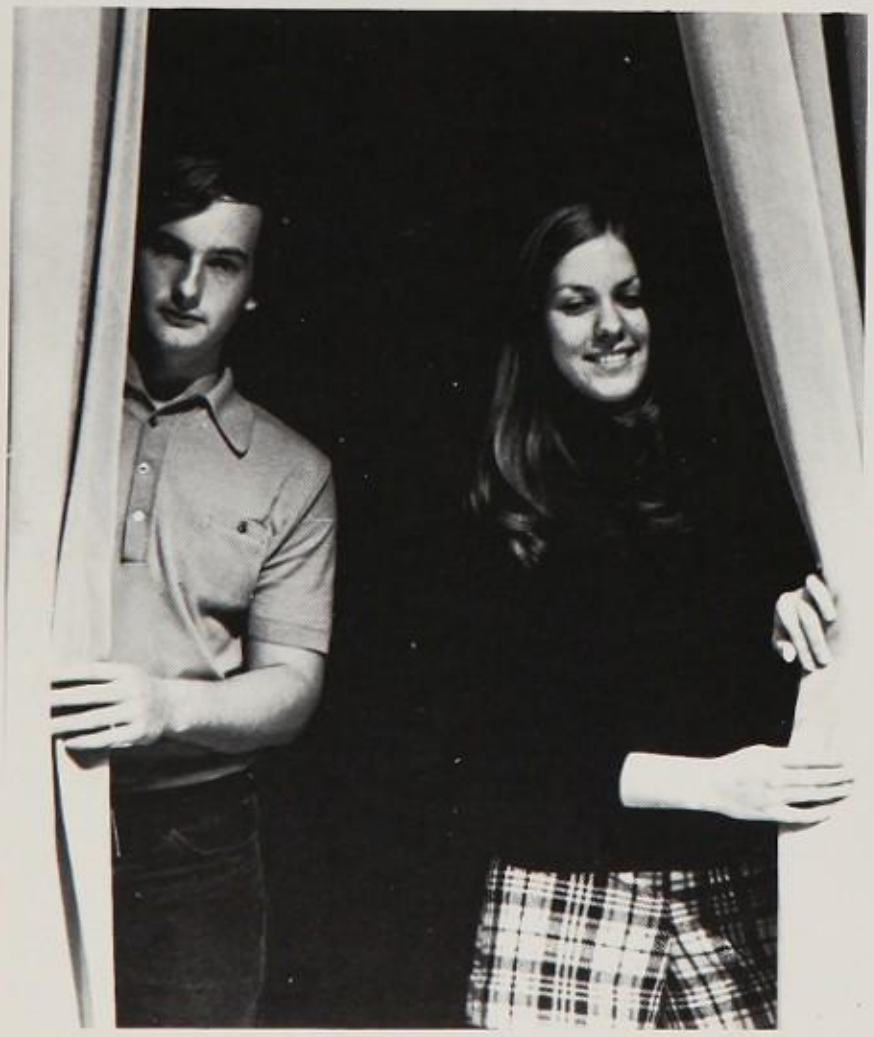
Most Unpredictable
Liz Paulson and Pat Novak
What they'll do next, you'll never know.
Liz and Pat, in ideas, they're original.
Whether talking, acting, or being playful,
In any field, they're most unpredictable.

Best Looking
Cathy Maxon and Larry Graham
Who do you see,
Looking over here.
Cathy and Larry
Best looking of the year.

Most Talkative
Ellan Ryan and Terry Bellinger
Yak!-Yak! Yak! That's the name of the game.
Patati, patata, in French it's the same.
Ellen and Terry, experts they are,
Being the most talkative, they are by far.

Fame

Most Studious
Narumi O'Hara and Gordon Hammer
Study, study, study,
That's the motto of these two.
Gordon and Narumi-
That's all they seem to do.



Most Modest
Julie Hays and Coleman Kelly
Julie is most modest.
Coleman is modest too.
Though they don't tell anyone-
They're good at what they do.

Biggest Flirts
Carrol Yetterberg and Dennis Kispert
It's Carol and Dennis that you see here,
Voted biggest flirt of this year,
Now if you should happen to ask: Why?
Take a look at the picture-are they acting shy?

Class Clowns
Jeani Pearson and "Doc" Downing Laughs abound, they clown around,
These two, that you see here.
Jeani and Doc, and the title they've earned Being class clown is the one they deserve.

It's not that I'm studious I just love school

Today was going to be a really bad day.
I felt it coming on.
Nothing new, same dull routine,
Homeroom & off to Physics for Labs.
Math & Psychology etc. & on it goes.
But . . . Something went wrong.
In talking to a few good friends,
The Physics experiments weren't all that bad.
Math was interesting,
& the day isn't as bad as I thought it would be.
As a-matter-of fact it's half over & tomorrow might even be better.

A wave of the hand and presto . . .

I'm not lazy I'm holding up the wall. .

Gimme back my lunch or I'll hijack you to the office.

I wish the office would keep their files straight.

"Until you're educated all the world's a black and white picture."

"You've come a long way?"

"Hmmmm I'm a junior already."

"Art is a chance to express myself."

Junior year. . .
a time for growing up getting involved
going to games making the A-squad
a time for isotopes and algebra A home ec and art
a time to discover that you're already half-way there and not quite certain if you wanted to join in the first place
but you did, you are,
we all are
and that's what's so wonderful.

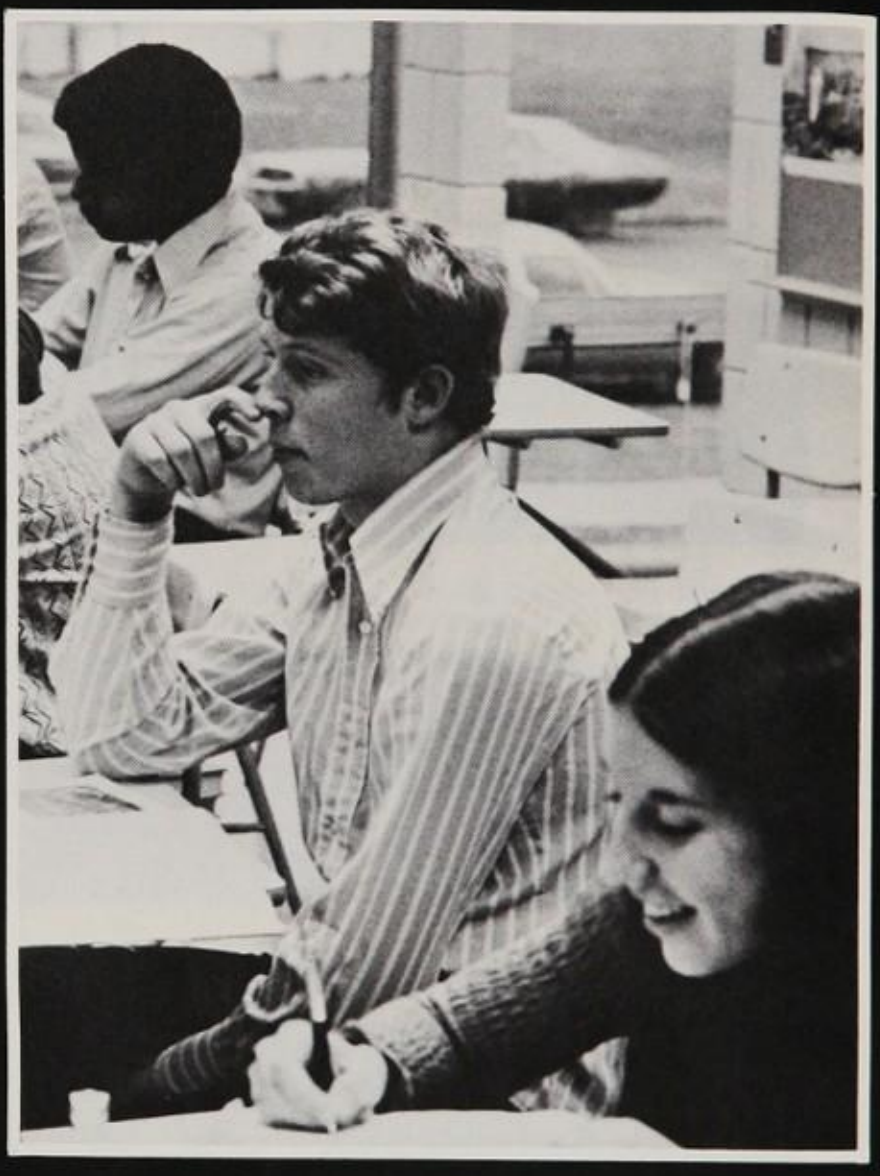
"And then what happened?"

Juniors...



"Yup it's still there!"

"You didn't eat the whole thing, did you?"

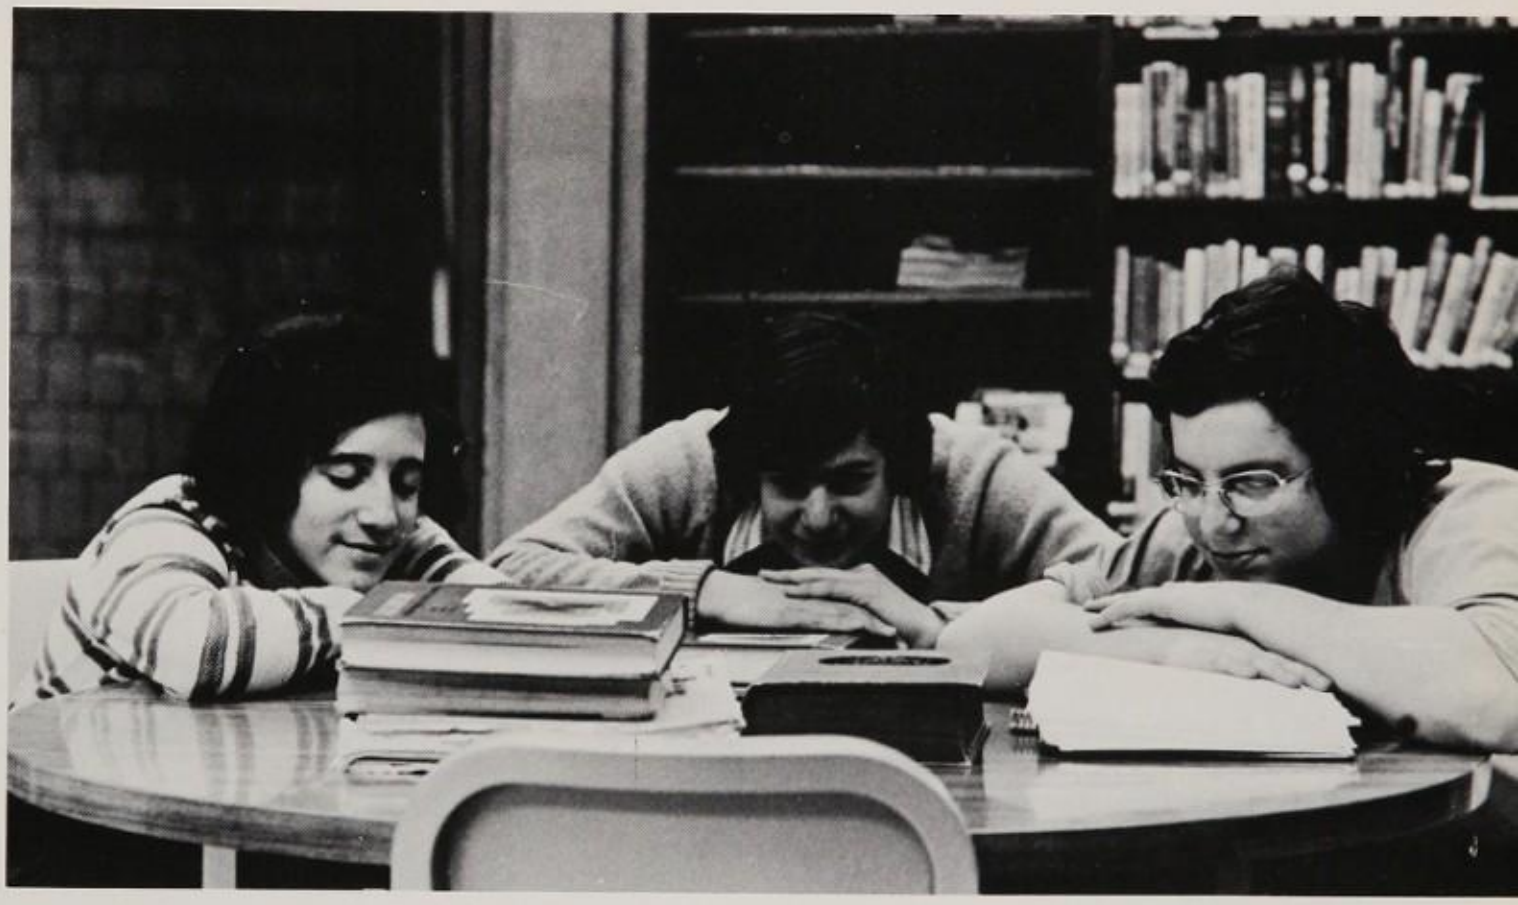
"Who was that man?"

"...and then he said"



Study Hall Drop Outs!

"There's so many things to do in this class."

"Of course I know what I'm talking about."

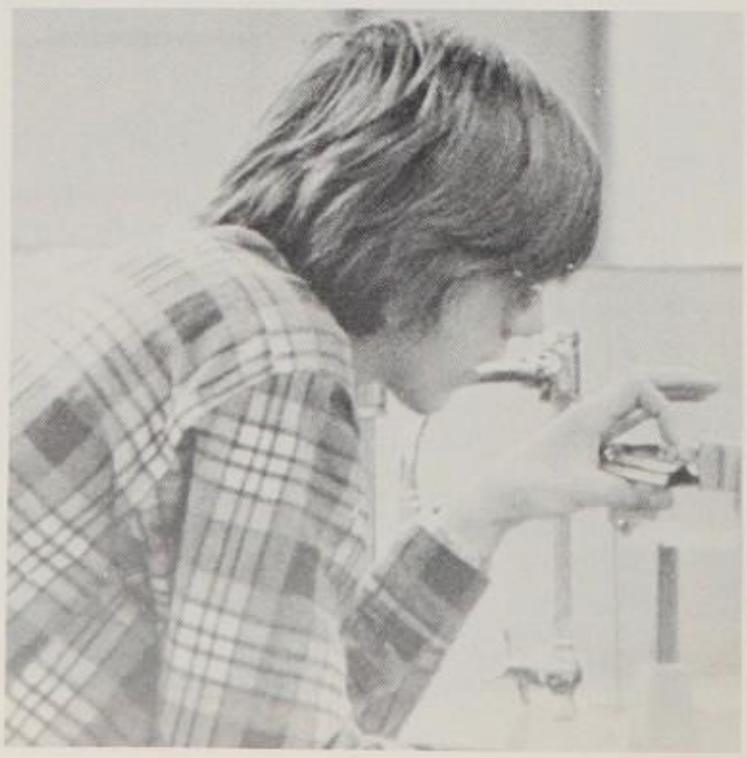
"Hey what's ya doin?"

"One two three, one two three."

"You mean it's due today?"

"Would ya look at that?"

"Hey leave my ball alone."

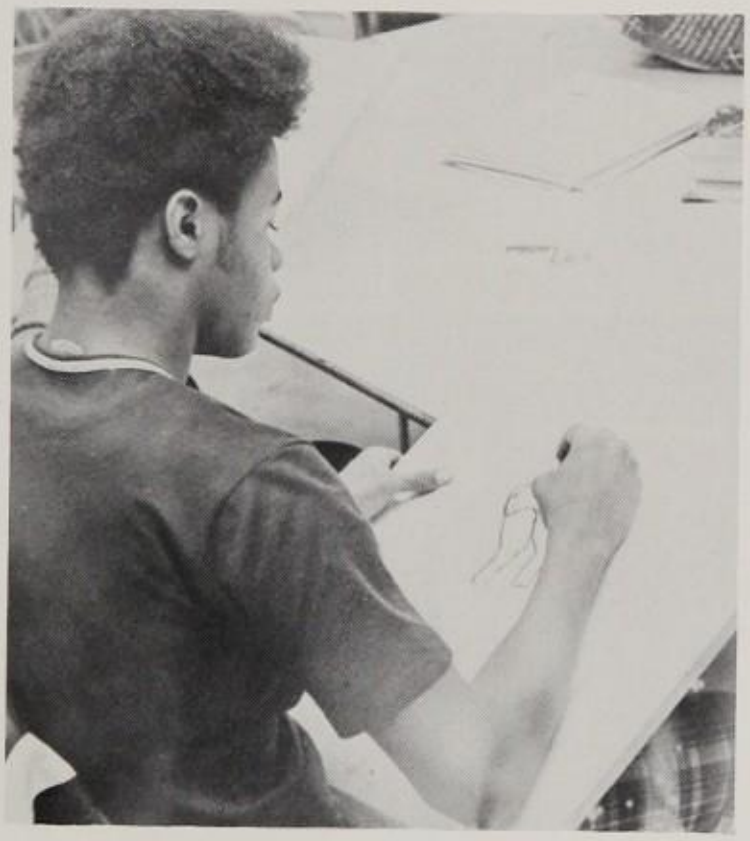


"Maybe a hair more."

"It's called dancing."

"That girl gets on my nerves."

"Answer swapping time."



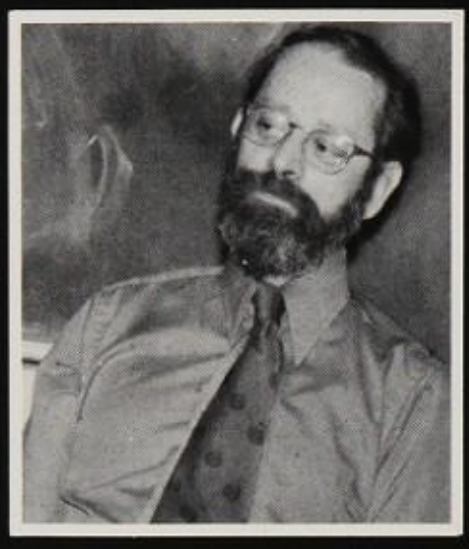
"Mircles can happen on a white sheet of paper."

"Where did you say to start cutting?"

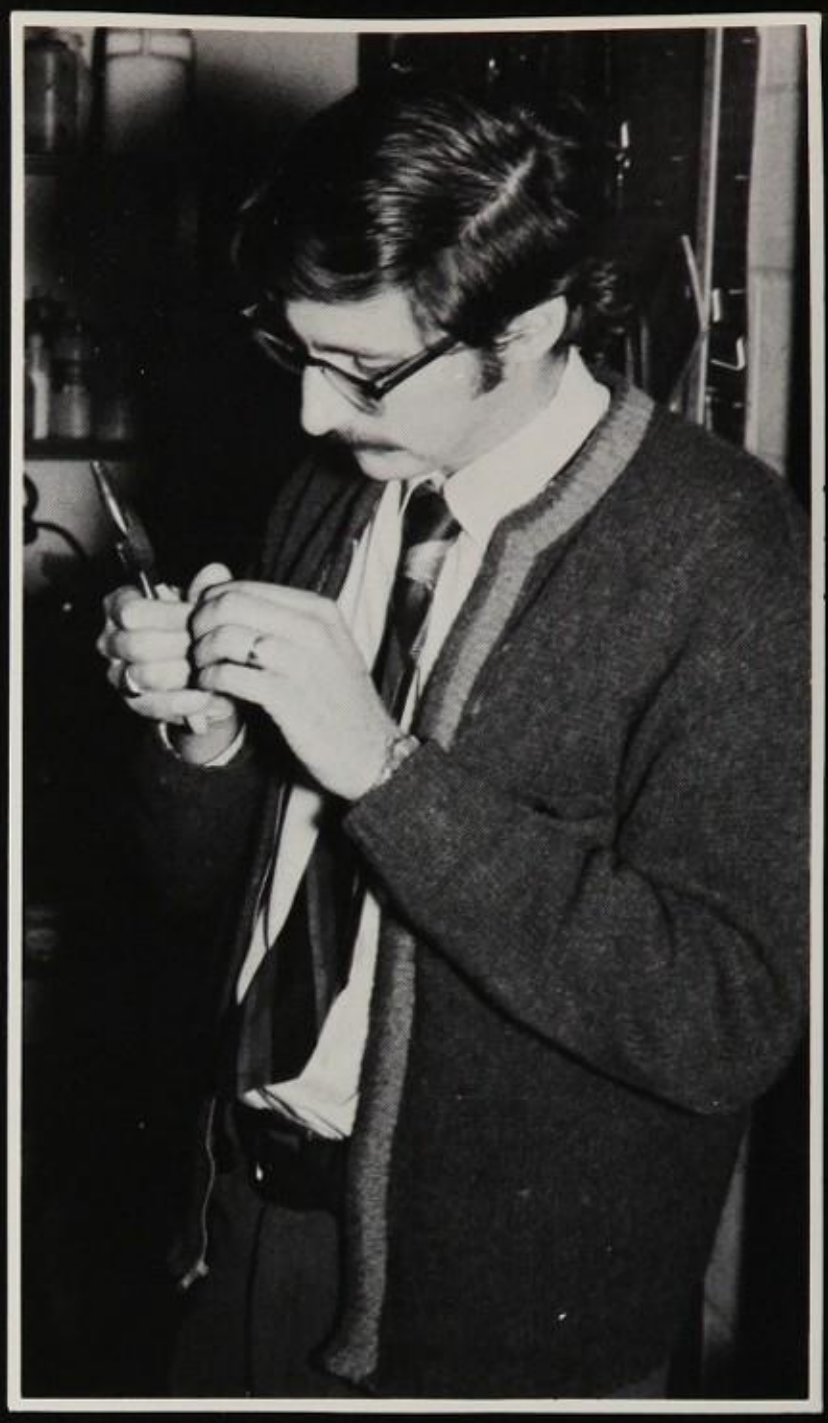
"And the halls of HP."

"If only he wasn't so old."

It's stuck!



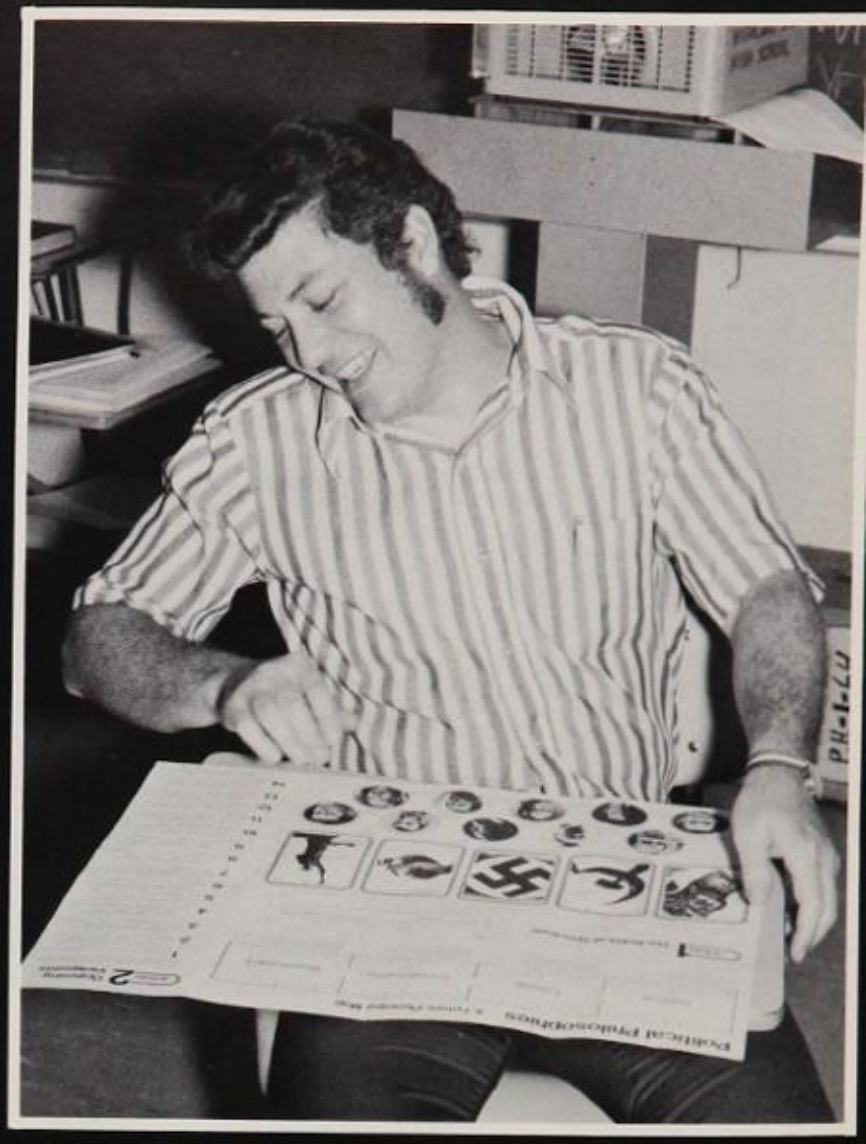
That wasn't funny.



I think I cut a little too close.

If I see one more M&M . . .

A true teacher is not a person who gains knowledge and then teaches it to others, but rather a person, who, after experiencing knowledge, gives others the chance to experience it also.



Aw shucks!

Oh-you love me too!

Would you repeat that please?

Staff

From the Principal

Your yearbook is a collection of memories of high school days - of names and faces - of people and places. I'm sure these are memories that will grow more dear to you as the years move on.

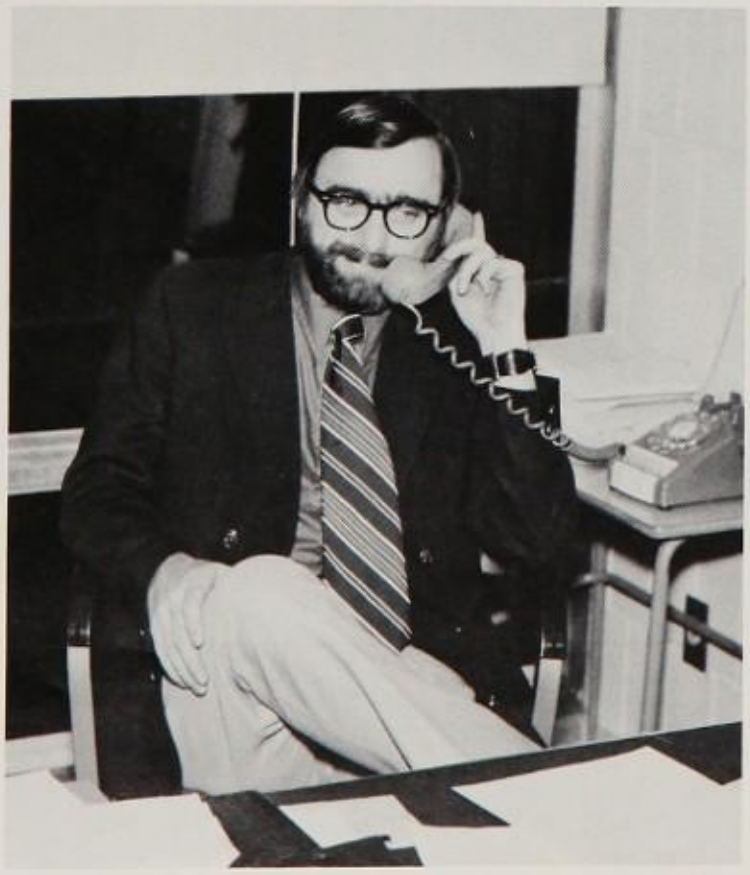
Today, in your youth, it's not memories of past days that are so important, but rather plans for the future that are uppermost on your minds. And these are important concerns. Each of you is a unique individual, with unique talents, interests, and abilities. It is my hope that Highland Park Senior High School has provided you with the opportunities and experiences that have helped you grow and mature as an individual and to develop your own uniqueness so that you will be able in the years ahead to take advantage of the opportunities that will be available to you to be a useful and contributing member of your community.

May the days that are ahead, be for you, days of happiness and rich in opportunities to be of service to your fellow man.

E.J. Lundeen
Principal

For all of you graduating seniors of the Class of 1973, I hope the future will find you making your contribution in the outside world in a constructive way. Society needs people to work and care more so than at any time in our history. Your school and its teachers has provided you many opportunities to prepare for you life in the future, no matter where it may lead you and what it may be. Give it your best try and God bless you in your efforts.

Ray C. Peterson



Congratulations to the Class of 1973. High school graduation is another, but far from final, milestone in your educational career. Learning is a life-long process and your search for truth and knowledge has really just began. Continue to expand your inquiring mind; cultivate a fierce, but honest pride in yourself; and develop a greater respect for your fellow human being and our country. Good luck and best wishes for the future.

Mr. Paddock has the best sense of humor.
We laughing know it's no rumor.
For a smile, not a frown
He's the best man around.
We learn while he jokes and we do more.

Mr. Davis is the most understanding.
Though teaching is often demanding.
With ideas wise
He'll always advise.
In a way that is never commanding.

Who's done most for students? It's Skinner.
In our book he's really a winner.
Student Council and Skiing
He's a real human being.
Some night we should take him to dinner.

The strictest is Mr. Chicoine.
In HIS class to laugh is a sin.
His yelling can keep Any student from sleep.
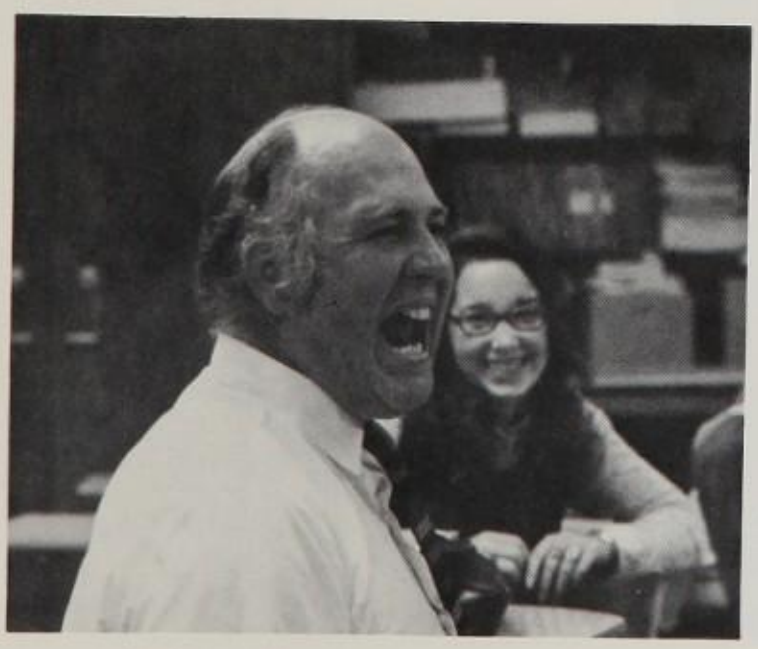
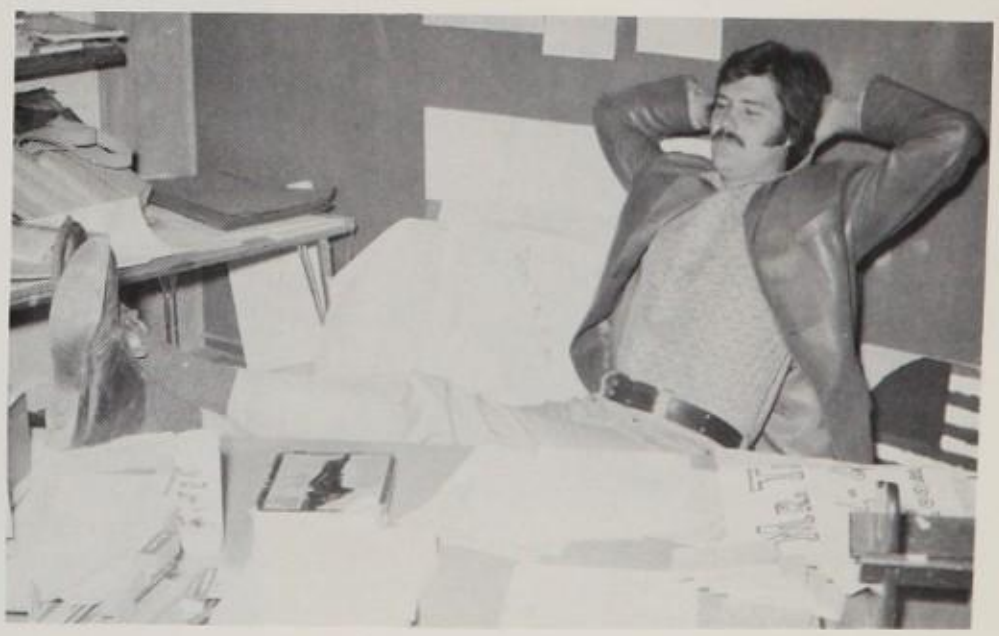
Old Adolph and he are akin.



M.L. Johnson's the loudest of all.
The hallways resound with this call:
"What's your pleasure?" he'll say.
If you're silent you'll pay.
With his method of speech he'll enthrall.



It is hard to relax, you'll agree,
But in Benshoof's they say it's easy.
His students we hear
Have it easy all year.
With his "Do what you'd like to" decree.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all those persons, who during the past year have contributed their time, talents and sanity to the cause of the 1973 Tartan. It is truly a worthwhile experience to get involved, be uptight, to experience frustration, and the satisfaction of knowing you've tried your best.

Thanks, just plain thanks, to a group of really beautiful people.

"Being a student is super terrific, especially on the week-ends. Hey remember that ski trip, The beer flowed like water. How about that Sno-days dance, 500 people showed they say. I liked Carnation Day best, Everyone walked around with carnations up their nose. Remember the time the Tankers beat Mounds View 49-46, My stomach felt pretty thick that day. Are you sure you didn't copy my test that one time we both got the same, exact ones wrong? I wonder what kind of memories I'd have if I hadn't had the priviledge of being "a student?"

King Tim Mc Levish and Queen Cathy Maxon reigned over the 1972 Homecoming festivities. The Homecoming events included a fantastic movie, and a pow-wow with an expected and "unexpected" fire. Many early risers attended the Homecoming Breakfast held at the school. After witnessing Murray's defeat, a large crowd continued on to the evening Homecoming dance.

OFFENSE

For the second straight year, Highland's football team had a 7-1 record in conference competition. Highland's defense held 5 of the 8 conference opponents scoreless; allowing only 27 points. Neish, Gerber, Johnson and Budzien were stalwarts on defense. Offensively, Highland scored 165 points. Leading scorers were McLevish, Weeks, Yungbauer, and Kelly. In the final Minnesota State High School ratings, Highland was ranked 12th.

The 1972-73 basketball season turned out to be highly successful. After an opening loss to Anoka (51-44) the team reeled off 18 straight victories. The conference season was highlighted by two decisive victories over 2nd rated Harding, and a perfect 16-0 record. The Scotsmen played one of their finest games when they defeated Mpls. Washburn 82-50 for their first Twin City basketball championship. Man-to-man defence and a balance scoring attack were trademarks of this year's team.

All-around standout senior captain Joe Rubin.

Senior Mike Jefferson on high bar.

Highland's defending city conference champion gymnastic team concluded another good season with a 5-3 record. The young team, made up mostly of sophomores and juniors, had a rebuilding year. Junior captain Bob Devine is an example of the team's youth, and will be back next year with a large group of returning lettermen.

Defense: seniors Jim Yungbauer and Steve Kircher.

Highland's hockey team finished with a 6-5-1 conference record, good for 4th place. The team had good leadership from 6 seniors: Jeff Keys, Bob Gerber and Tom Broneak formed a high-scoring line, and finished 4th, 5th and 6th in the city individual scoring race. Jim Yungbauer, Steve Kircher and Steve Williams were the heart of the defense, along with the capable goal-tending of Elliot Libman.

Highland Tankers Place Eleventh in State

Seniors: Becky Burchell, Phil Ruud, Joe Rebholz, Jack Post, Ken Kixmoeller, Kevin Conway, Brian Westover.

Highland's swim team clearly dominated the St. Paul conference by posting a 8-0 record in conference meets for the 7th consecutive year. In non-conference action, Highland took on four of the other top 10 teams in the state. The Scotsmen Tankers also placed 4th in two relay invitationals, Bloomington and Hamline. The 1972-73 swim season record: a fine 11 wins-3 losses. Once again, Highland placed in the top eleven teams in the state. The squad is a relatively young one, with 8 seniors and 6 juniors, backed up by 10 sophomores and 5 junior high swimmers. This year's team was lead by Highland's Mark Spitz, Jack Post, who holds 6 team records. Other members of the squad who made the season the success that it was were senior Joe Rebholz, whose prowess in almost all events gave Highland its versatility, seniors Brian Westover and Dennis Klocow, along with junior Jim Kaplan, who gave the team its depth in the freestyle events and co-captain Ken Kixmoeller, used primarily in the backstroke, who jelled the team with his hard work and enthusiasm. The breaststroke duo of seniors Phil Ruud and Kevin Conway provided the necessary efforts to round out a fine squad for the season. With up-and-coming juniors John DeYoung, John McKee, Greg O'Leary and Alan Berkovitz returning along with a host of fine sophomores, the future for the Scotsmen Tankers looks very encouraging.

Highland Grapplers Place 5th in Conference

This year, Highland's wrestling team broke even with a 4-4 conference record for a 5th place standing. This is a great improvement over the past two years 2-6 slate, as was Highland's district competition. Three wrestlers from Highland took third place; Kevin Ryan in the 120 lb. class, Tom Gehrz in the 127 lb. class, and Bill Hinderer in the 133 lb. class. Highlights of the season were the two third place trophies Highland won, both at the Princeton and Central/Highland tournaments. Mr. Eggert's "B" Squad had the finest season ever, finishing second in the district "B" tournament. Stanley Wong, Paul Jeddeloh and Terry Bitney all took first place honors.

Coach Cameron's 1973 tennis team was successful in duplicating the accomplishments of their predecessors. Last year's team won every conference match by blanking the opposition 5-0, a feat never equalled by a city conference team. Returning from that team are district champ Lou Schway, along with Phil Stegemoeller, Jack Post, Lenny and Jim Schuchman, Dave Legan, and Tim McLevish. Schway, one of the top tennis players in the state, is expected to improve on his third place finish in last year's region play, and berth in the top sixteen in the state. A new addition this year was Highland's B squad team, coached by Mr. Gary Podas.

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

This year was the first in Highland's history that a girls team participated in interscholastic conference volleyball play. The team's record was 7-1, their only conference loss at the hands of arch-rival Murray. This gained them a portion of the three-way tie for first place, and their final standing in the conference was a respectable third place finish.

ATHLETIC HONOR ROLL

The Tartan staff would like to congratulate the following athletes for being chosen as all-city selections in fall and winter sports. By establishing this honor roll, we hope to start a tradition to be followed by future Tartan staffs. We regret that we cannot include those athletes chosen for spring sports, as that information is not available to us at the time of this printing, but we extend our congratulations to them as well.

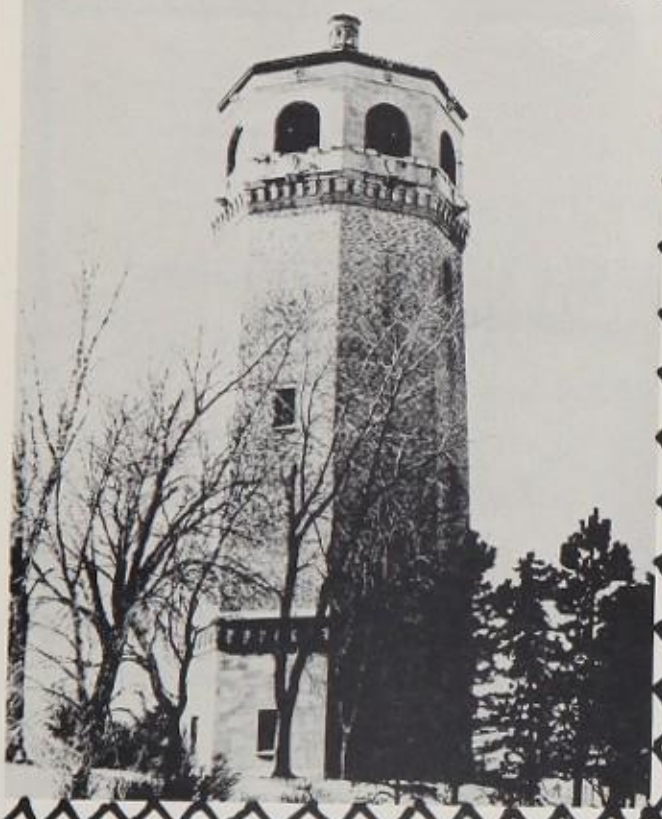
A PATCHWORK of PEOPLE


A Patchwork of People
and places and faces,
With the fears of a failure,
And the joys of a triumph.
A grandmother's heirloom of pieces of time,
That are gone now,
But will be remembered for always.
A quilt that is warm
with the memories it holds:
Some sweet, some not quite so . . .
But all worth remembering,
Because their sum total
is the Fabric of Life.
